Delco Fair Raises $15,000 For Community

Two-days of rain held attendance to around 4,000 people. Given the short notice and the terrible weather, the Delco Fair went well. There were plenty of volunteers, and, except for roadside visibility, the Franklin Mint site proved ideal. Glen Riddle Rotarian Joe Fletcher (right) and John Messer watch as Sam Messer pulls name of Joanne Starner of Aston as winner of $1,000 prize. Despite two days of rainouts, Delco Fair raised $15,000 to be used for projects sponsored by Glen Riddle and Concordville-Chadds Ford Rotary Clubs.

each month be Membership Day (with a few minutes to talk about what it's like to be a Rotarian); (2) that the Rotary Informatino sessions for new members be held each month on the Thursday following the board meeting (allowing for prospective new members names to be placed in The Medium with enough time for the 7-Day Notice); (3) that month.

The Other Side of the World

Written by Brandon Johnson, our Ambassadoral Scholar.

October 21, 2008
Odyssey to Batad Banaue, Luzon, Philippines

I boarded the rickety bus packed with Filipinos and held tight as it lurched forward. A pillow from my moldy towel and a few Tylenol PM, and I was out. My Odyssey had set sail. At promptly 4:30 am, the ticket collector shook me awake. I departed, and instantly after my foot hit the ground, the bus vanished into the night. Alone, I stood awkwardly alone a dark, narrow country road. The pitch black was pierced by a few patches of incandescent light, illuminating three shack-like booths advertising food for God-knows-who, the vendors asleep on the counters. A Filipino boy emerged from the darkness, balancing a tall stack of dusty pizza-like boxes, and tried to sell me three "Coconut pies" for 50 pesos ($1). Confused and groggy, I just sat down.

An hour later, my ride arrived. Joining a few other late-night stragglers, I climbed aboard the "jeepney" ---a colorfully decorated pickup truck, with passenger benches lining the bed, a roof, and plastic jeep-like windows. I wedged between a middle-aged woman named Minda, who had spent the last few days collecting and transporting giant sacks of clothes for her shop; a scraggly young man named Dess, who regaled country tales while chewing "bitternut" (a tobacco-like substance that stains teeth and lips bright red and induces frequent spitting---quite charming).
